

EUROPEAN LABOUR LAW (credits 6) [III semester]

Teacher to be appointed

Dipartimento di diritto privato e storia del diritto

Course Contents

The course gives an overview and deals with the background and sources of Labour Law and social policy of the European Union. In particular the course focuses on the study of: fundamental social rights, free movement of workers, employment policies, conditions of employment, equal treatment, dismissals and transfer of undertakings, industrial democracy.

During the course a visit to the Court of Justice of the European Union in Luxembourg will be organized.

Required Readings

The students will be provided with three syllabi:

- a) a syllabus containing all the legal texts of European Labour Law in the English language;
- b) a syllabus containing the texts of the most important case law of the European Courts on European Labour Law in the English Language;
- c) a syllabus containing a comment on European Labour Law in the English language.

The power point projections of the subject matters will be given.

All these materials will also be digitally available on the website of the Department

Prerequisites

The knowledge of Italian Labour Law and Employment law is recommended.

Final Examination

A final written exam at the end of the course.

The students will be required to make also a short written assignment (ca. 5-10 pages) about one of the subject matters of the lectures. The assignment will make up 50% of the final note for the course.

*Three extra credits (related to the knowledge of a foreign language) will be granted if the final exam is passed.

Dissertation

If interested in a final dissertation on European Labour Law students are invited to contact Dott. Francesca Marinelli (francesca.marinelli@unimi.it).